

STEVE JOBS

APPLE

- He has a company.
  - He has discipline in his work.
  - He loves teach to his employees.
  - He knows work as a team.
  - He is intelligent, passionate and patient.

I chose this entrepreneur because of his passion, determination and because he was an exemplary person, besides Steve Jobs knew what he was doing, he knew what he was doing. From this I can take as an example in my entrepreneurship, I conclude by saying the phrase that Steve Jobs left us: "Those who are crazy enough to believe they can change the world are the ones who change it."
